YOUR ADVENTURE

Situated in the Aosta region of the Italian Alps, just a few hours from Milan, this stunning location is nestled in a flat region with rolling terrain and consistent winds. For more advanced and adventurous riders, there are steeper slopes behind. There's a selection of fantastic snowkite spots nearby, allowing you to choose the best one based on the weather forecast. The base camp is easily reached on foot. Drive up to Hotel Notre-Maison, park in the hotel's parking garage, and the base camp is only 200 meters (600 feet) away, accessible via a small path.

A person in a red jacket is snowkiting on a vast, snow-covered mountain slope. The sky is filled with dramatic, dark clouds, and the background shows a hazy valley with rolling hills. The text is overlaid on a white rectangular box in the upper right quadrant.

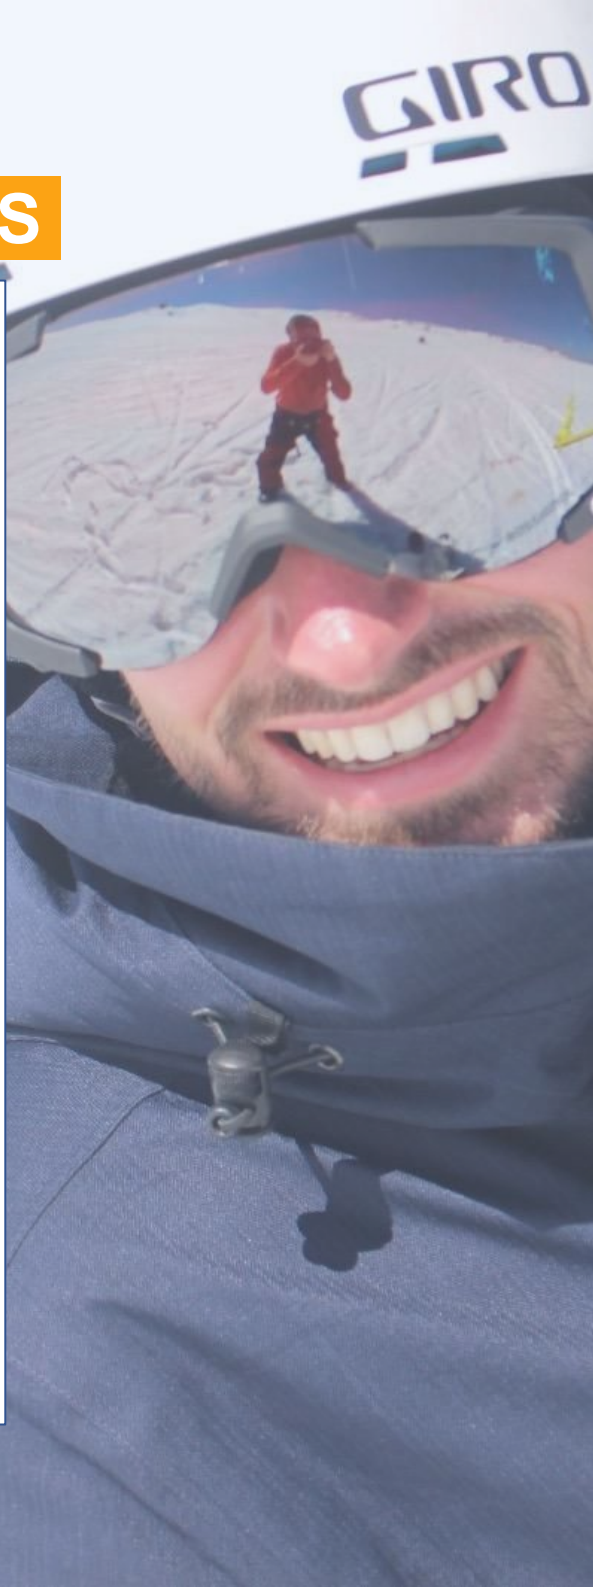

Enjoy not only the pleasures of snowkiting but also explore the rich region of Aosta Valley. Immerse yourself in the local culture, discover its gastronomic delights, and take the time to appreciate the hidden treasures of this alpine valley. You are about to embark on an experience where adventure, nature, and authenticity harmoniously come together.

THE SPOTS

VETAN

Nestled on a high plateau at 1820 meters (6000 feet) above sea level, Vetan offers unobstructed views, expansive plains, and gentle slopes. Facing south, it basks in sunlight throughout the day, creating a delightful outdoor experience even in winter.

The snowkiting season kicks off with the first substantial snowfall around late November and extends until mid-March. In case the base camp lacks sufficient snow, a brief trek to higher altitudes might reveal more snowy treasures.

Col du PETIT ST. BERNARD
(La Thuile)

Access to this location involves utilizing the lifts at La Thuile ski resort, requiring skiing skills. The snowkite pass (15 euros) can be procured at the cashiers at the bottom station of the gondola.

This spot enjoys a consistent thermic wind from France (SW) and occasionally experiences a stronger NE wind from Italy. Snow coverage is reliably excellent throughout the winter and into spring. Nightly snowfall at the site erases daytime tracks, leaving an expanse of untouched powder for your exhilarating adventures the next day.

YOUR SNOWKITE LESSONS

Learn the basics of snowkiting in Aosta Valley. The concept of snowkiting is quite simple and you don't need to be an expert skier or snowboarder to enjoy the many sensations provided by the speed and the jumps this activity allows. A couple of lessons are usually enough for anybody to get the hang of the equipment.

Though physical at first, it is not as extreme as kitesurfing, and more generally, it takes a lot less wind to move you across the snow than if you were kitesurfing on water. Snowkiting is enjoyable on any type of snow: powder, sludge snow, ice (frozen lakes). This makes it a very flexible sport that can be practiced in many different locations as long as they are windy enough. Rest assured, snowkite beginners who already know how to kite and ski/snowboard will be able to manage on their first session!

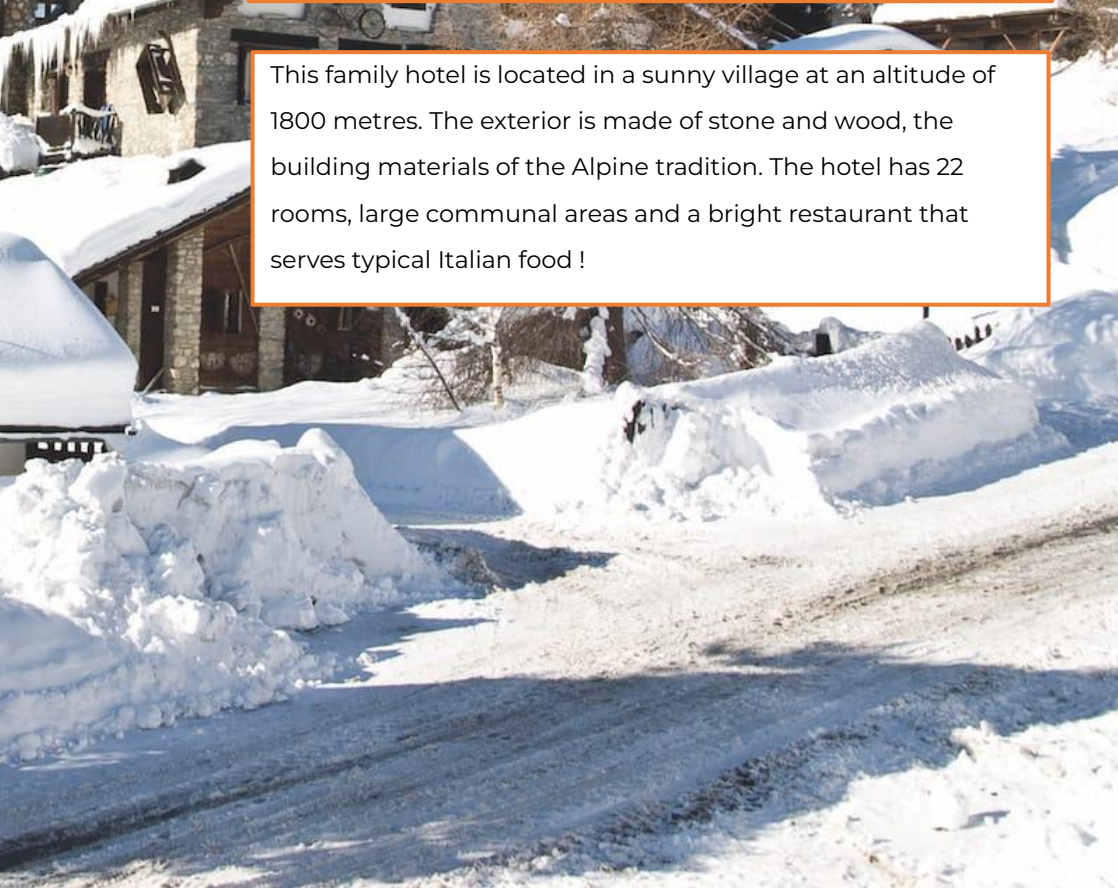

NOTRE

MAISON

This family hotel is located in a sunny village at an altitude of 1800 metres. The exterior is made of stone and wood, the building materials of the Alpine tradition. The hotel has 22 rooms, large communal areas and a bright restaurant that serves typical Italian food !

IN CASE OF LOW WIND CONDITIONS

In the event that the wind doesn't play along, which kite enthusiasts are well aware can happen even in prime spots, Snowkite Sensation has a range of alternative activities to ensure your time is well spent.

Other Winter Sports: Pila, Courmayeur, La Thuile, and Cogne ski resorts are in close proximity, offering opportunities for alpine skiing and snowboarding. Backcountry excursions, freeride experiences, and heliski services are also readily available.

IN CASE OF LOW WIND CONDITIONS

Gastronomy: Italy stands as a culinary paradise. In northern regions like Langhe, Parma, or Valtellina, the sun blesses the land, yielding local treasures for travelers to savor and bring home: Barolo wine, white truffles from Alba, hazelnuts from Cortemilia, and Parma ham. The finesse of Italian cuisine unfolds with dishes like fresh pasta adorned with Parmesan cheese (from Parma, naturally!), such as Agnolotti del plin, a delightful blend of meat and vegetables. Indulge in the renowned eggplant Parmigiana gratin or authentic polenta. Olive oil and Mediterranean herbs dance with sun-kissed vegetables, charcuteries, and fish in an array of recipes bound to entice your return.

Visiting and Relaxing:

Aosta city is a brief 20-minute drive from your location. Don't be surprised to hear French spoken; residents of the Aosta Valley traditionally converse in French. The city boasts a wonderful selection of restaurants, including three Michelin-starred establishments for a truly exquisite dining experience.
